The UWA Business School will host the visit of Professor Michael Burawoy as the UWA Business School Visiting Professor, 2013.

Professor Burawoy will conduct a workshop on the Extended Case Method. Professor Burawoy is an internationally renowned sociologist, an ethnographer by training and disposition, and a longtime member of the sociology department at the University of California at Berkeley. At the time of his early research training, the extended case method was taking root as an alternative to functionalist approaches. By the time Professor Burawoy arrived at Chicago for graduate school in the early 1970s, he was steeped in this approach. He has continued to advocate the extended case method and applied it in his major research projects.

Presenter: Professor Burawoy is Professor of Sociology at the University of California, Berkeley, USA. He is currently President of the International Sociological Association and is a previous past President of the American Sociological Association (2004). Professor Burawoy has written many books and articles, most notably Manufacturing Consent and The Politics of Production. Professor Burawoy is in Perth to be a keynote speaker at the AIRAANZ 2013 Conference (Australian Industrial Relations Academics for Australia & New Zealand).
