Do you want to understand more about doing business in the third largest and fastest growing economy in Asia?

As India continues to emerge as a global economic superpower, more business opportunities are arising for those able to do business on the subcontinent.

India is now the third largest economy in Asia and ninth largest economy in the world, according to the International Monetary Fund. This year, MBA Flexible students can take part in a study tour to learn more about doing business in India.

Doing Business in India

MGMT5618 International Study Program consists of pre-tour lectures on the evenings of 7, 14, 21 and 28 October, a study tour in Mumbai and Delhi from 20 to 29 November, and assessments upon your return to UWA.

The study tour - Doing Business in India - is a short customised program run by the Welingkar Institute of Management Development & Research, University Mumbai, in collaboration with the UWA Business School. The program aims to cater to the needs of international communities who seek to understand India, Indian businesses and the opportunities of doing business in India.

The MGMT5618 International Study Program unit outline is available to view in UIMS.

The cost of the tour is $2500 AUD, which covers accommodation (single room supplement: $30 - $40 AUD per night, depending on availability), breakfast, welcome and farewell dinners, internal flight to Delhi, industry visits, networking, sightseeing tours, a visit to the Taj Mahal and more. In addition, students will be responsible for paying their unit fee for MGMT5618, as well as organising and paying for their own international flights into Mumbai and exiting Delhi, plus entry visa.

For more information on the program, visit www.welingkar.org/destination_india/index.asp

How do I enrol?
