

Trafficking of Women and Children in Nepal

CNN Hero of the Year 2010

Ms Anuradha Koirala

Chairperson, Maiti Nepal - a social organisation committed to the prevention of girl trafficking.

MAITI Nepal was born in 1993 through a group of socially committed professionals to protect Nepali girls and women from crimes like domestic violence, trafficking for flesh trade, child prostitution, child labour and various forms of exploitation and torture.

Ms Anuradha Koirala will speak about the problem of human trafficking and its consequences. She will highlight the work of Maiti Nepal and how these trafficked girls and women are rescued from brothels and given a home to heal, learn and be loved.

Ms Anuradha Koirala has rescued more than 12,000 women and girls from sex slavery and was named the 2010 CNN Hero of the Year.
